Stockholm, April 12.

THE Plenipotentiaries who on the Part of this Crown are to manage the Conferences at Neuſtadt, are moſt probably ſtill at Griſlehaven, the Letters which are come in from thence having left them there on the 10th Inſtant. They had been once out at Sea, and were got within Sight of the Iſle of Ahland, but met with ſo much Ice that they were forced to come back. On the 6th Inſtant Major General Cronberg's Regiment of Foot came hither, and To-Morrow the King deſigns to review four Regiments now here, which are to be drawn up in the Park near this Place. The Inhabitants of this City being extremely incommoded by having ſo many Men quartered upon them already, the King has ordered that moſt of the other Regiments which are on the March hither ſhall halt in proper Places, ſo as they may not arrive here before the neceſſary Diſpoſitions are made for all to incamp in this Neighbourhood: And it is ſaid, that two or three Regiments that were at firſt deſigned to be part of the Army which is to cover this City, are now ordered to march towards Calmar, in the Neighbourhood of which Place there will alſo be poſted a Body of about 5000 Men under the Command of General Ornſtedt.

Stockholm, April 19. The 17th Inſtant being the King of Sweden's Birthday, their Majeſties received upon that Occaſion the Complements of the Senators, Nobility, and Foreign Miniſters, and in the Evening there was a Ball at Court. The ſame Day M. de Campredon, who arrived here from Petersbourg the Night before, made his Report to their Majeſties of his Negotiations.

Paris, May 14. On the 10th Inſtant there was a Ball at the Tuilleries, but His Majeſty did not dance as he formerly uſed to do. The Turkiſh Ambaſſadour was preſent there, with all his Retinue. A fatal Accident happened before the Ball began, to the Chevalier de Fenelon, Nephew to the late Archbiſhop of Cambray, and Lieutenant of the Regiment of French Guards. This Gentleman attempting to leap over the Balliſters which ſeparate the King and the Officers of the Court from the Reſt of the Company, his Foot ſlipt, and he fell on one of the Spikes, which entering into his Thigh cut the great Vein, of which he died two Hours after. M. d'Argenſon, late Keeper of the Seals, was interred on the 10th Inſtant with great Pomp. The King has granted a Penſion of 6000 Livres to each of his two Sons, and to Madam Collandre his Daughter 4000 Livres, beſides the Employment of Chancellour of the Order of St. Louis which his Majeſty continues to his eldeſt Son. The Duke of Chartres was declared on the 11th Collonel-General of the Infantry, except the French Guards and the Swiſs Troops, which remain under their former Commanders. This Poſt was ſuppreſſed by King Lewis the 13th, upon a Notion of its giving too much Authority to a private Man, and the laſt Collonel General was the Duke of Epernon. The Duke of Chartres, who holds this Employment by a Brevet only, will have no Sallary, nor all the Prerogatives which thoſe who were formerly in that Poſt enjoyed. The Marquels de Biron will continue Inſpector-General of the Infantry, and have a great Share in the Management of Affairs under the new Collonel-General. The Wife of Mr. Law, late Comptroller General, has left the Hôtel de Mazarin, of which the Duke of that Name has taken Poſſeſſion again, and on the 10th all her Effects were ſeiz'd by Order of the King. Mr. William Law continues ſtill in the Baſtile.

Hague, May 13. M. Somerſdyck ſailed from the Texel on the 10th Inſtant, with four Men of War, for the Mediterranean; the reſt of the Squadron appointed for that Service are to follow and join him at Cadiz. M. Delmet, who had been General Receiver of the States General, died laſt Night. Letters from Warſaw of the 30th paſt relate, that General Allard, who after the Battle of the Pruth quitted the Muſcovite Service, and came into his Poliſh Majeſty's, was going back again to Muſcovy. M. Buzenval, the French Envoy there, had on the 23d his Audience of Leave of his Poliſh Majeſty, and deſigned to ſet out in a few Days for Switzerland his Native Country, and thence to go to Paris.

Whitehall, May 5. On the 2d Inſtant in the Evening the Ceremony of Chriſtening the young Prince was privately performed at Leiceſter-Houſe by the Reverend Dean Harris, Chaplain to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales: The King of Pruſſia, repreſented by the Earl of Grantham Lord Chamberlain to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſſes of Wales, and his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, repreſented by the Lord Viſcount Lumley Maſter of the Horſe to their Royal Highneſſes, being Godfathers; and the Queen of Pruſſia, repreſented by the Dutcheſs of Dorſet, the Lady of the Princeſs's Bedchamber in waiting, being Godmother. The young Prince was named William Auguſtus.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellour of Great Britain did, in Purſuance of His Majeſty's Command for that Purpoſe, call together on Tueſday laſt His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, and City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, who attending his Lordſhip to the Number of one hundred and upwards, he was pleaſed, in His Majeſty's Name, and, in the moſt earneſt and effectual Manner, ſtrictly to enjoin them and every of them to make the moſt diligent and careful Enquiry and Search for the Diſcovery of the ſcandalous Clubs or Societies mentioned in His Majeſty's Order in Council already publiſhed, and alſo duly to execute their Office in detecting and proſecuting, with Vigour, all Profaneneſs, Immorality and Debauchery: Now theſe are to give publick Notice, that the Juſtices for the ſaid City and Liberty being throughly ſenſible of the high Obligation they lye under, and being accordingly firmly reſolved to act in the Diſcovery and Puniſhment of the Premiſſes with a Vigour and Reſolution becoming ſo important an Occaſion, and where the Honour of Almighty God is ſo immediately concerned, have appointed a General Meeting of the Juſtices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, to be in the great Room of the Bell Tavern in King-Street, Weſtminſter, on Friday the 12th Inſtant, at Five in the Evening; at
